

SHRIMATHI DEVKUNVAR NANALAL BHATT VAISHNAV COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

(AUTONOMOUS)

Re-Accredited with 'A' Grade by NAAC

Affiliated to University of Madras

Department of English JOURNO - ELAN(JAN '15)

From the Department's Desk

We take this opportunity to thank our College Management and Principal Dr.G.Rani for their untiring support and encouragement. The department congratulates the students on their creative endeavor. With the blessings of almighty let this attempt be cascaded triumphantly by B.A. III (Journalism) students.

Women as multi-taskers

It's a common belief that women are better at multi tasking than men. After all, productivity studies show that women continue to do the lion's share of work of household and childcare tasks, while also holding down part time or full time jobs. So, are women better at multi tasking???Not necessarily.

For a topic that causes so much heat in the kitchen, there's surprisingly little scientific evidence to declare a clear winner. A research paper published in the journal Science suggests that both hemispheres of the brain's medial frontal cortex acts like a tag-team, switching between tasks. They uncovered no difference between men and women. Despite this finding, however, Dr Etienne Koechlin director of the cognitive neuroscience laboratory at the French

National Institute for Health and Medical Research believes that woman may be better at multi-tasking and "has some real roots". But however researchers believe that women are better multi-taskers as they prove themselves to do multi tasking as they win by planning anything and everything and productivity at home.

K.N. SUPRITHA

Women of Substance

You can tell the condition of a nation by looking at the status of its women - Jawaharlal Nehru.

The surviving physical evidence temples, buildings, and battle memorials all speak of a man's world. The place of women in ancient Greece is summed up most acutely by the historian Thucydides in the fifth century BC when he comments 'THE GREATEST GLORY' (for women) is to be least talked about among men, whether in praise or blame.

However, even though India is moving away from dominated culture, discrimination, still highly visible in rural as well as in urban areas, throughout all strata of society

Today, India offered a lot of opportunities to women in the business world as well as in political life nevertheless India is still a male dominated society. Women's lack of access to higher education had effectively excluded them from the practice of well paid and high status occupation. Entry of women into the higher profession like law and medicine was delayed in most countries due to women being denied entry to universities and qualification for degree. Let us make their existence to be glorified and signified by giving them basic and quality education.

G.VANATHI

Developing Personalities

A personality development program was conducted to the final year students on our college campus. It was held as a three- day session from 8/12/2014 to 10/12/14. The pep talk was delivered by Nandakumar IRS on the first day. The program focused on various topics like social etiquette, SWOT analysis, global competitiveness, emotional intelligence, stress management. The members of 4 U in U delivered the sessions in effective ways and students were highly benefitted to face the real world.

RAJASHRI

Pulp Fiction Thumbs Up or Down?

Pulp fiction fever is driven throughout India. Many young readers opt out to read books that owe them less time and content. They create an emotional contact with the characters that writers develop. Pulp fiction books are sold in top charts that have created a buzz in the art of writing. The recent argument over the quality of language in pulp books should be noted keenly. Many of their themes of betrayal, unrequited love, crime thriller, motivation become instant hit as today humans' face in their daily life and provide them with solutions. It raises yet another query whether the concept of sex and love is influencing the theme. Also it may be the reason why pulp fictions are in top sale and sideline other literary books of notable authors. But many books of these kinds drive readers with real inspiration and moral support. Writers like Durjoy datta, Robin Sharma, Preethi Shenoy, Anuj Tiwari, Rashmi Bansal, Chetan Baghat, Ravinder Singh and many others make it to the list and hearts of readers. The debate on pulp-fiction's literary contribution goes on as still many feel whether the art of writing is commercialized with its arrival and dominance.

K.AMRITHA LAKSHMI

Expectations!

We all have expectations. And when they are not fulfilled, disappointment sets in. The expectation of reward dilutes the enjoyment, which is to be cherished wholeheartedly. It destroys the ultimate happiness of a person, not allowing he/she to celebrate their own success completely. Expectations are like cancer which spreads unhappiness throughout our mind and contaminates the peace of mind. Expectations only hurt, when they are expected from others. So let's begin a positive change of Expecting from 'Self'.

SUHASHINI

Regeneration of Women

Literary study is perhaps the most powerful medium to stimulate public minds. So we are concerned with feminism as an academic discipline and intellectual inquiry that goes by the name of 'Woman Studies'. So, agenda of feminism is to understand the social and psychic mechanism, that constructs and perpetuates gender inequality, and change it as much as possible.

The root cause of the degeneration of our women can be improved. Women are the embodiment of sacrifice and suffering and their advent to public life should therefore, result in purifying it in restraining unbridled ambition. In order to make the attempt we will have to produce women pure, firm and self-controlled. The number of women who can realize those ideals will be necessarily small and therefore we will now consider what ordinary women can accomplish if they will try. Their first attempt should be directed towards awakening in the minds of as many women as possible as consciousness of their present condition. Woman is the companion of man gifted with equal mental capacities. She has the right to participate in the activities of man and she has the same right of freedom and liberty as man.

K.BIRILAYA

Honor us but do not.....

Women, in most settled societies of the world and virtually all class societies have experienced low status, exploitation, oppression and loss of self-determination. Society gave importance only to the paternity in patrilineal societies, it is scarcely surprising that many settled and class societies insist on female premarital chastity. The inherent uncertainty of paternity has often produced bizarre and barbarous attempts to secure the fidelity of married women as well. It is an unpleasant fact of life that women today are still struggling for rights equal to those of their male counterparts, in the home, in business and as consumers. Many societies still view females as chattels or property belonging to men. While it is true as a general rule that women are not physically as strong as men, this does not necessarily mean they are less able or willing to undertake hard work or are less intelligent in any way. Statistics prove that girls now tend to do better than boys at school and women have outnumbered men in knowledge. Slightly further east in India, activist are currently lobbying the government to take action over so-called "honour killings". A common attitude in the country is that daughters are assets. The ritual of giving and buying of the dowry should be banned and understanding the pure essence of 'true' daughters will put an end to honour-killings.....

ABIRAMI

Woman – A Bond in Marital Life

The Scripture says,

“Nevertheless neither is the man without woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.”

The mutual bond between man and woman is so essential in life. It gives co-ordination and co-operation to both of them. When man and woman understand each other, their life will be happy forever. Woman plays a vital role in marital life. The head of the woman is the man but the woman is the glory of the man. The peaceful marital life builds by five basic qualities of the woman. They are as follows:

1. The fear of God creates inner beauty of woman. God says “Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.”
2. Good understanding helps the woman to be steadfast in the life and helps to make an unbroken family bond.
3. Possession of beautiful countenance of woman gives a way to peace and happiness to the family.
4. The virtues of woman make her trustworthy. Why because the scripture says, “Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies” and “A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband.”
5. Wisdom makes the woman intelligent to develop a proper economic condition. The scripture says “Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.” With the help of these qualities woman makes the family bond effective and makes the life fruitful.

MARIA MADHANA.

You Know What To Do...

India today is at the cusp of a paradigm change in its growth and its position in the world. We must act decisively to capture this opportunity. We need to think big and scale up rapidly in each and every area, be it education, infrastructure, industry, financial services or equality of both genders. For around two centuries, social reformers and missionaries in India have endeavored to bring women out of confines in which centuries of traditions had kept them. But we should not forget that history is a witness to the women who have in the past demonstrated unique leadership capabilities. Earlier, most women were able to demonstrate the leadership qualities only on their home fronts, and presently, it is slightly changed positively. God has gifted women with compassion, tender-heartedness, caring nature, concern for others. These are very positive signs which imply that women can be leaders. Though some women have shown their mettle yet a large number of them have to sharpen their leadership qualities in various ways. In order to help women to be in limelight, they need to be empowered. Therefore, empowerment of women is the prerequisite to transform a developing country into a developed country.

S. SIVARANJANI

Acceptance

Sleeping for months in mother's womb, reaching the world through the aid of doctors and is considered as a pride of the family. It is a boy baby. Treated high handedly than his sisters, pampered and trusted with all future expectations and responsibilities. Given the best education and believed to be a great pillar for them. Gifted with bat, ball, trousers and many boyish things the heart throbs for snake and ladder, skirt and flowers. Being ineffective to express the inner feeling caused due to the hormonal change, fakes the external world. Hidden inside the room, covered by the walls relinquishes his thirst by dancing as a girl. Unaware of revealing feminine behavior falls as a prey under the evil eyes. Waging war daily to hide the real self turns to be a great turmoil. Rather than playing hide and seek, determines to reveal his real self. He decides to be a true beggar than to be fake prince. Abandons the family and becomes the refuge among the people of the same sect. Wanders around the park, bus stand, market, railway station and beg for alms. With the saved money he does nirvana(an operation conducted to change ones sex) and achieve his life time goal. Now he is no more he, he is she and proudly calls herself by a female name. Now begging seems difficult without a cause after achieving the goal and decides to stand independently. The task doesn't seem simple as thought, insult follows her every step. Deserted by family, friends and society what every third-gender needs is not sympathy it's merely ACCEPTANCE as a normal human being

VARDHANA

Why no Female Shakespeare?

World of literature is unfulfilled without women's contribution. But no woman has racked up the reputation like Shakespeare or Wordsworth. They possess the same expertise as the male writers. But the only trammel was her name.

Joanne Rowling was forced by her publisher to change her name as J.K. Rowling in order to appear like a male writer. Her second initial "K" was a contrived one. Karen Blixen's Book was very popular as she simulated the British Empire in a vivid manner. But the name Karen Blixen was not known by anyone as the book was written under the male pen name. Not only Rowling and Blixen, there are several women writers like Ann Rule, Mary Ann Evans etc are not given freedom to express their own name. It is because of the society we have no prominent writers with female name although their works gained popularity.

N.S.C.AARTHI

An Insignia

A symbol of purity
 A prism of clarity
 Who knew what is charity and magnanimity
 She knew the trick of levity
 A monument of objectivity
 She is known by majority
 She is a track of connectivity
 She has the ability and civility
 To tackle the problems without sensitivity
 A stupendous personality in superiority

B.NANDHINI DEVI

Farewell.....

In this world, every person would come across the farewell. But it depends upon the person's perspective. Either it is a school or college student, he/she should have a big heart to overcome such wonderful feelings. No words to express, it's an emotion that everyone is gifted to shed tears, it's a day meant for sharing and expressing emotions and apologize for the curt feelings. One should forget the shyness and talk sweetly and positively to others. So, understanding the concept of farewell will help a pessimistic to change into an optimistic person.

K.PRIYADHARSHINI

Where I am?

Where I am? I asked myself
(soul)
In the urgent world.
The unsafe world...
Once people from other villages came to our village to fetch water...
Now we go to another village.
Why I asked?
My soul replied ...
To get the sophisticated life
At the expense of nature
Turning into concrete jungle...
My neighbor happily said to me
our village is slowly developing.
It echo's my level of existence
In the urgent unsafe world...
It is unanswered and questioned
where I am Now!

A.PRIYANKA

Culture

Culture is an integrated pattern of human knowledge, belief, and behavior that is an integral part to the human capacity for learning and transmitting knowledge. Culture thus consists of language, ideas, beliefs, customs, taboos, codes, institutions, tools, techniques, works of art, rituals, ceremonies, and symbols. It has played a crucial role in human evolution, allowing human beings to adapt the environment to their own purposes rather than depend solely on natural selection to achieve adaptive success. Every human society has its own particular culture, or sociocultural system. An individual's attitudes, values, ideas, and beliefs are greatly influenced by the culture or cultures in which he or she lives in.

MARY ANGELINE.V.

The Mother-Son

Relationship

The mother-son relationship is a dynamic one, in which both people become richer. Sons help mothers learn about males in a new way and appreciate a world that may seem foreign to them. "Mothers can be good role models of a healthy marriage as well as a healthy love relationship. Because mothers still do the majority of parenting in most households, boys learn more from their mothers about how to love than their fathers," according to Coleman.

Yet, some mothers may worry that if their childhood does not hold up as a wonderful example of a loving parental relationship, their relationship with their child may be in jeopardy. If a woman has had a poor relationship with her father (or parents in general), she could still take steps to create a warm and loving relationship with good communication with her son.

"We have a great deal of control over how we parent are not destined to repeat relationships if we consciously choose to do things differently."

SHRUTHI PRIYA

MOM

There is no love comparable to that of a mother's. From the moment we are born, we have an instant connection with our mother. The kindness of mother bestows upon us reaches farther than that of any other individual. A mother's kindness is gentle, pure and stands to uplift us even at our lowest moments with kind words, a mother can turn our whole day around. She creates a feeling of trust and love that cannot be fulfilled by any other source. A mother's kindness is something one simply can't live without

P.RAMYA

The Modern Indian Woman Indian history has many changes in recent centuries. The most striking among them is the conflict caused by the rather difficult transition from tradition to modernity. It starts from the time a child is born. In many Indian homes the desire for a male child is so obsessive and a girl child either becomes timid, subdued and resigned or she turns into a rebellious person. Woman has weathered all the storms and emerges triumphant as a married-career woman and she is qualified to be called a Modern Woman in its truest sense

S.NANDHINI

From Fire Wood to Induction Stove

In earlier days people cooked food with mud pots, bamboo sticks and palm leaves. Day by day man started to research all minute things around him. It resulted in the development of culture, tradition and his behavior. Stones turned as match sticks, animal skin as dresses, caves as five storey buildings, carts as automobiles and so on. Today we are imposed into a brand new mechanical life, fully furnished but emptiness at heart. At times we are longing to get back our fire wood life rejecting all luxuries of induction stove as still we are in the process to get adjusted with all the adjustments of our life .

G.KARTHIKA

I Love You Mother.....

A mother is more than just a parent. She is her children's best friend. A mother is someone who loves her child unconditionally and more than life itself. Mothers are angels in disguise sent by God to watch and help us during our troublesome times. We hardly stop to think of how they feel if they need help, we abuse them in a sense by not appreciating them enough. Every mother has a moment in her life where she remembers every detail. At that moment, she makes a promise to herself and her child that she would be a good mother. A mother has many defining traits like unconditional love, support, and being a good role model.

KAVITHA

English Literary Association

English Literary Association was inaugurated by Dr.V. Kadambari M.A, Ph.D, Assistant Professor Department of English Ethiraj College for Women on August 4th 2014. She gave a lecture on "Modern Literature" and delectable lecture bewitched the students.

SHALINI.T.R.B

Women

A woman is "The Goddess" of every house. She is a care taker and holds the family in means of circumstances which she comes across. In early days, during the freedom struggle women also went to battlefield and fought for the country. One of them was Rani Lakshmi Bai (Jhansi Rani). It is meant that a woman's place is said to be in kitchen but the trend has changed and she is in all the fields. In today's scenario women are brave and they are challenging to the society like Kiran Bedi who is the First Women IPS Officer. Without women there is nothing possible in this world. It is lucky to be born as women. Praise the existence of women, respect them though not as goddess but as a fellow human being.

R.S.PRIYADARSHINI

Women in Science

Women have made significant contributions to science from the earliest times. In the early 21st century in the United Kingdom and the United States, nearly 50 percent of medical degrees and doctorate degrees in the biomedical sciences were awarded to women. Undergraduate numbers in mathematics and in the physical science were approaching similar levels, and only in computing and engineering were women students still significantly under represented. This massive statistical shift took place in the context of a general increase in the number of women entering higher education, a product of the widespread movement towards gender equality and of campaigns to encourage girls and women to pursue their interests. Reaching the top tiers of scientific recognition, however, remained difficult for women. But this challenge was not unique to science – women in business and government faced similar difficulties. By 2001, a century after the presentation of the first Nobel prizes, only 10 of the prestigious awards in the sciences had been bestowed upon women. In future, many women will capture the awards through their perseverance and diligence.

NIRMALA DEVI

The Art of Story Telling

Dr. Sandhya Ruban, Creative Head, Eloquens conducted a workshop on ‘The Art of Story Telling’ on 9/1/2015 effectively. The session was very interesting which involved an active participation by students. The workshop stimulated the creativity of students and inculcated confidence through the art of story narration.

B. KEERTHIGA

Tips for a Better Conversation

Conversation is indeed an important art. All you need to do is to find subject that interests the listeners. Try to avoid unpleasant topics such as sickness and death.

To be a good conversationalist we must know how to say things. Be civil and modest. Don't overemphasize your importance. Be mentally quick and witty and at the same time it should not hurt others. You must avoid mannerism like biting lips, clicking tongues, rolling eyes etc., Have a positive attitude towards the listeners.

A.R.ASUMA ASHIKA

My Creator

She is a symbol of love and symbol of generosity;
Her anger is like an oyster,
Her love is as precious as gem;
She is a shell
Where i am safe,
She is a fairy from god to nurture me;
She has given a golden key to open a diamond treasure which is my meaningful life.

P.S.VISHNU PRIYA

School Days

I like my School days more than my College days. I don't know the reason but I long for those days. In school, I was always surrounded by my friends. My teachers were always good to me. I spent most of my times talking with my friends. I had a great bond with my teachers. My teachers always considered us as their children and forgave us for our silly mistakes. But in my college days my teachers consider us as their Friends not as their children. I have more responsibilities in college comparing to school days. I have many friends in college but not like my school. My school life created unforgettable days in my life.

HANSA QUEEN

Path to Superpower...

Nowadays in our country population goes on rise. It results in a lot of problems in our country. Excessive population leads to unemployment and it also affects the education of children in India. The rich becomes richer and poor becomes poorer. To change this concept the government of India should take necessary steps like making people aware of all these happenings. Each individual should realize his own responsibility and actively take part in making India a super power.

S.R.SIVAGAMI

Caller Tunes

In this modern world most of the teenage boys and girls are interested to set the caller tune for their mobile phones. Setting a caller tune is also a kind of entertainment. Most of them are curious to set a new song as a caller tune. That shows they are interested to update their caller tunes. Some people want to set a famous dialogue as their caller tune. It makes us to laugh and enjoy. Even a caller tune helps us to find the quality of a person. .

SHARMILA.M

Go Green.....

Green, green green
Everywhere it seems green
Trees of fragrant forest,
With leaves of green unfurled,
Which catches the raindrops
And drop them down slowly
Everything is beautiful.
It looks at god all the day
And lifts its leaves to pray.
It helps the robin to stay,
On its hairy leaves .
And makes animals and man,
To take rest under its shade.
Oh,how so great creature,
Doing good deeds all through its breath.

DEBORAH

Expectations

Everyone suffers with a malady called "EXPECTATION". We start expecting when we grow a little higher. Human's expectation can never be met as it proliferates but never desists. Expecting more devastates peace. We should aim but not expect. A man would like to receive honors but reluctant towards fiascos. There are people who expect but never take any action to bring it into reality and this leads to frustration. Expecting others according to their stand point makes no sense.. Even parents can't expect their children to become what they had failed to become in life because they can't be successful if they don't accomplish it wholeheartedly. Following one's footsteps and expecting instantly to be like them will not do as time analyses each one's caliber. At one point of time, we realize that we had best things in our life after having losing it. The things which we consider nothing will seem the best to others and it goes on. So it's better not to expect and realize the things with which we are blessed with and reach greater heights as "reality is often different from expectations".

KIRAN

State of Gays and Lesbians

Nowadays Gays' And Lesbianism are common all over the World and this practice is more predominantly seen even in our society. Our Indian tradition does not accept this but in foreign countries, they have legalized this practice. They have legalized this practice, so the gays and lesbians happily move about. Our tradition does not encourage this and they hate those people away from the society. Moreover they are not ought to be blamed for this it's just the hormonal imbalance in them that encourages them to behave odd among the socialized people. As "literature reflects, life" we should be more practical in understanding their feelings and emotions and we should not hate them and they should be given due respect and privileged to live in the society.

ILAKKIYA

Pain.... no Preparation..

I was 12 probably the right age for girls. Something sensed new. Overnight things changed. Took bath in turmeric, draped new sari, adorned with flowers. Alas! I look matured; yes people said the same I'm matured now. They gave me sweets and savories. Like a bride I was seated on chair. Rituals went on. New gifts, new dress, sweets etc. Huhhhhh!!!!!!! Lot of happiness....!!! But I never knew it was a farewell to my independence. A circle was drawn around me. New rules and regulations bounded me. I sensed it different when my opposite gender friends approached me. All the advices ringed in my ears but it really frustrated me. I wanted to live how I was. And yes I did that. I just ignored the walls around me and enjoyed my pace of life

VEENA.G.R.

My God's Gift

My mother is the most important person in my life. I cannot really express how I feel about her in just words. My mother is my whole life; she will do anything for me. My whole world revolves around her and she is the most influential person who inspires me in my life. My mother is not just another woman. She is extraordinary I have known her for 22 years, 4 months. I know her very well. My relatives tell me that how important I was to my mom. I was the main thing for her joy, strength, peace and love. After my father passed away, my mother took his place and fulfilled her duties as both. She fulfilled all our needs. She struggled a lot to nurture my family. She took care of my education and all necessary needs. She explained things very simply. I thank her for being simple. In my life I experienced a lot of joy but my true happiness is my mother. I don't want to miss her in my death also. I want to live with her and want to die for her. I thank God for giving me such a wonderful person in my life as my MOTHER.

DIVYA BHARATHI

My Feel Towards My Parents

You may believe or not, but it is true that in this world no one can give true love like our parents. A father's goodness is higher than the mountain but mother's goodness is deeper than sea. Our parent's prayer is the most beautiful poetry and expectation. Parents can only give good advice or put us on the right path but the final forming of a person's character lies in our own hands. So design your life through the experience of your parents.

JEBAPRIYA

Love Nature

“Forget not that the earth delights to feel your bare feet and the winds long to play with your hair”- Khalil Gibran.

Where do we find time to be with Mother Nature in this modern world? Our ancestors spend most of the time by worshipping nature. But nowadays we give prime importance to Idols by avoiding Nature. Only nature can give us happiness and contentment. We are made to suffer by rejecting the priceless service of nature. We are receiving everything without the single thought of giving anything in return. It is in our hands to feel the beauty of our Mother Nature. It is we who have the ability to care for our Nature.

L. LEKHA VANI

Women of Past and Present

In past, women were confined to their houses and their priorities were to rear and take of their family. But nowadays women come forward to get educated. They show their real strength to the society. Many of them become doctors, lawyers, teachers, scientists, police, customs officers, engineers and also business women. They are equal to men. Many women succeeded in their life. They have achieved more than men. We should salute women for their development and intense courage.

MAGESHWARI

Soul of Dance

Dance is the form of vibration of our body and mind. It is a form of worship through which a dancer can reach the Almighty. It is a form of Yoga. A dancer can only reach this stage through continuous training i.e. 'Sadhana'. So, in my view, for the child who wants to learn dance, has to undergo hard training from which she will learn discipline and patience which are the most important factors in a child's life. The total body movement of a dancer will give her good physical fitness and control over the body. Dance is a mode of expression of inner feelings and she can express herself through dance. In that way she will develop self-belief and self-confidence. The true object of our culture is to develop human personality in all its aspects.

NITHYA .S.

Cozy Winter

Be it any season or any festival, joy and happiness prevail in our mind. Christmas the one which makes me feel chill and gets me goose bumps every time I think of Christmas! Stars, evergreens, snow, socks on wall, a cute little crib- all these are just enough to describe my favorite season. Recalling my childhood, there was nothing equal to those childish expectations that made us wonder what gift would Santa had kept for us inside socks that hung on the wall, all along with the cozy chill breeze that the season has gifted us. Just can't wait for every year to enjoy with my very own winter!

BLESSY EVANGELINE.R.

My Love Pain

My life is beautiful coz
Dear it's you...my life
I want to hold your hand and show
Me the way of life
Hug me for my worries to die
My tears to dry
You gave me reason to hope
You gave me reason to smile
I love you, for giving your heart to me
I love you, for trusting me
I love you, coz I remain in your heart
But now my heart was crashing

Down the whole world
The day a second that when
We are separated,
But you are always in me.
You're always in my heart
Till our days over.....

DIVYA DASS.M.

We Indians.....

Living in the land of morals and worshipping divinity in humans we always have the charisma to make people get admired towards us. Wherever we go and whatever heights we reach, 'We Indians' tag sticks to us as a shadow. We feel proud when our tricolor flag flutters in Mt.Everest, when our people kiss their medal amongst non-natives. We thrive to cleanse our body mind and even one's own soul. It's time to rekindle the wave 'We Indians' and gather our energy in this mission. As an end note, "To make our country a 'Swach Bharat', let us unite together in making India a real Bharat.

T.R.HARITHA

Success

"If you can't fly then run.
If you can't run then walk.
If you can't walk then crawl.
But whatever you do you have to keep moving forward."

"Success seems to be connected with action, successful people keep moving. They make mistakes

but they don't quit."
"Success is not final, failure is not fatal; it is the courage to continue that counts. There is no elevator to success. You have to take the stairs".

R.KARTHIGA

Impact of Story Telling

"The Universal is made up of stories not by atoms". Story telling is an art. Use of language should be spontaneous and filled with positive furor. It will help to unleash the creativity and oozes out positive vibrations amidst others. Stories can make the listeners enthusiastic and active.

We imbibed these qualities after the workshop on 'Story Telling'

S.SASI

Determination Stirs up Success

Determination is one of the leading factors that make your life successful. All great leaders taste the fruit of success because of their self-determination and hard work.

No matter what ever obstacles you face in your life or career try to overcome it with dedication and determination. A determined person is generally optimistic and dedicates to her desires and goals which is a good trait to possess. Dreams and goals are accomplished only by determination which stirrup success in one's life and work hard to do the best. "Think high! Aim high! Do high" and be a determined person.

B. DEEPIKA

Interesting Facts

The Universe contains over 1000 billion galaxies.

One million, million, million, million, millionth of a second after the Big Bang the Universe was the size of a pea.

The Earth is 4.56 billion years old the same age as the Moon and the Sun.

R. MAANVIZHI.

Quintessence of Women

Women are the inherent part of our society and cannot be neglected due to their less power and authority. They are created as a companion for men and men have to make them walk with them in the course of life. She plays roles as a mother, a sister, a daughter, a wife. They play their roles with great responsibilities to construct a healthy solid society.

U.PRIYANKA